What is Formula 1

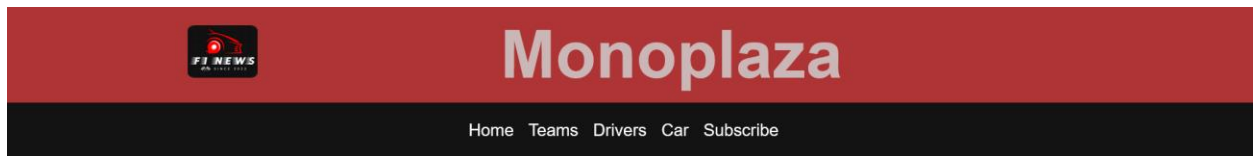

Formula One (also known as Formula 1 or F1) is the highest class of international racing for open-wheel single-seater formula racing cars sanctioned by the Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA). The World Drivers' Championship, which became the FIA Formula One World Championship in 1981, has been one of the premier forms of racing around the world since its inaugural season in 1950. The word formula in the name refers to the set of rules to which all participants' cars must conform.[1] A Formula One season consists of a series of races, known as Grands Prix, which take place worldwide on both purpose-built circuits and closed public roads.

Now is possible to access to the whole page and the information.

Teams Page

Present information related to each team in F1. The page displays a search bar to search by the team. It is possible as well to access specific information like drivers, chief, and first competition by clicking on the images provided.
